

Measurement: Worksheet -9

1. Complete the table.

Object	Holds more	Holds less
a) bottle & glass
b) cup & mug
c) spoon & cup
d) bucket & mug
e) glass & bowl

2. Arrange in an order from the container that holds less to those that hold more.

a) glass, cup, mug, bucket

b) jug, spoon, bottle, spoon

c) jar, glass, cup, spoon

3. Write some non-stands units to measure the capacity of a container.

4. Write the answer to following questions.

Name of the object	Capacity of the object
a) a bucket	20 glasses
b) a mug	4 glasses
c) a jar	12 glasses
d) a kettle	8 glasses
e) bottle	6 glasses

a) Write the object which have more capacity.

b) Write the object which have less capacity.

c) Arrange the objects in ascending order according to their capacities.

5. Measure the capacity of a bucket by using different units like cup, mug, glass. Did you get the same answer and why?

HOTS:

4 bottles of water can fill up _____ kettles.

